

“Happy Birthday, Michael!”

8/15/2010

From 27 to 29 August celebrate Jackson fans from Germany and Europe in the capital of their idol with a gala and the world’s largest “Thriller” dance performance.

His hits enthusiastic billion people, his death last year shocked the entire music world: the largest ever seen before Fanparty remind fans of the “King of Pop” of 27 to 29 August in Berlin at their idol Michael Jackson. “The preparations are underway for a year and with a lot of support from artists and fan bases. Fanwochenende With the greatest of all times and visitors from Germany and across Europe, we want to prove to Michael on his birthday in Berlin, the honor,” said Amir Abdel Rahim of “Make A Better Place “. The nonprofit network organized with the fan club “MJ Revival” the spectacular major event “for fans by fans”.

Ushered in the festival on 27 August 16 at Madame Tussauds clock with a competition for the best Michael Jackson outfit. clock, it goes up 19 more at the Maritim Hotel Berlin (Stauffenberg Strasse 26, 10785 Berlin-Mitte) with contests for the best dance performance, the performance of concert recordings, and the opening of a special exhibition of the Michael Jackson Museum in Switzerland. The entrepreneur Thomas Käppeli, who was a friend of Jackson, presented the first time outside of his Swiss museum of art and rarities such as awards and autographs of the King of Pop.

28 August is the Fan Fest at Potsdamer Platz on with the performance of the classic film “Moonwalker”.

Among the highlights of the weekend is the big gala tribute “Happy Birthday, Michael!” on the eve of his birthday. The Mega Star would this year become 52 years old. On the Maritim-stage stand in his honor at the 28th August from 19 in addition to other clock Dany Z., best Michael Jackson impersonator in Europe, as well as contributors of “The Better World Project”, a musical project of imprisoned in NRW. Even singer Kirk Smith and Adesse Roesner, the Street Dance Champion “FanatixX, children’s choirs, Star-up artist Dieter Bonn city dwellers and many other artists who were in contact with the King of Pop or with him closely feel are at the big birthday show involved.

29 August 14 clock call the organizers to be the largest memorial march in Germany for Michael Jackson from the Brandenburg Gate to Alexanderplatz on. On the “Alex” is then the world’s largest “Thriller” dance performance will be performed for the same mega-hit Jackson. “We want to due with fans from all over Germany are celebrating the birthday of the King of Pop and his music.

The award recognizes the international environmental campaign “Plant For The Planet” is his social commitment and his commitment to the environment will continue, “said Amir Abdel Rahim. The proceeds of the weekend will be donated to this initiative. D are as complete program, tickets and all other information is at www.mj-revival.de

Company Description

The nonprofit network “Make a Better Place” sees itself as a platform to support charitable projects and organizations across the path of targeted campaigns and charity events. Content oriented “Make A Better Place” and others in the global Millenniumsentwicklungszielen the United Nations. The network, based in Berlin is – according to his name – and solution to concrete action.

<http://www.pr-gateway.de/t/25607>